

The Delivery Cut

The Delivery Cut is a strong pick for general fiction readers for those seeking something with a certain twist on the dark side of life.-James A. Cox, Midwest Book Review
The Delivery Cut, which starts out somewhat tentatively but develops such cool mastery by its closing chapters that I'd like to say: New York publishers, eat your heart out that you don't have this guy writing for you.-Dennis Haritou, Three Guys One Book
Mr. Rakowski...he has a voice, a power, a vision and something to say. Give him a try, and I suspect you might find yourself in on the ground floor of a towering reputation.-Phil Jason, Florida Weekly
In this fresh and incredibly readable piece of work, Rakowski's writing shines with intensity, gripping density and is powerfully real. His book provides an exciting opportunity to get away with a multifaceted protagonist and an absolute genuineness in tone.-Yohana de la Torre, Gulf Coast Times Magazine & Miami Herald Columnist
In this engaging debut novel, The Delivery Cut, Joseph Rakowski demonstrates a strong sense of character and pacing as the young protagonist navigates a gritty, wild Miami and reconsiders what he wants in life.-Marissa Bell Toffoli, Words With Writers
Like the mold Rakowski hoped to follow in Thompson's novel The Rum Diary, The Delivery Cut trickles with the essence of a drug trip.-The FSView & Florida Flambeau
Delivery Cut is an entertaining and engaging story that keeps the pages moving. A solid first effort, Joseph Rakowski could be one to watch.-Renee C. Fountain, BookFetish
The Delivery Cut amazingly explains how cocaine is seen as just another simple product in a supply and demand world and it educates us, through its interestingly dark and rich characters, into how to respectfully and responsibly deliver the product with a huge emphasis on good customer service.-Tom Riddell, The Writers Lounge
