

One Basket

[...] Look here! I want to tell you something: I happened to be up in the mayors office the day Blanche signed for the place. She had to go through a lot of red tape before she got ithad quite a time of it, she did! And say, kid, that woman aint sobad. The Very Young Husband exclaimed impatiently: Oh, dont give me any of that, Mooney! Blanche Devines a town character. Even the kids know what she is. If shes got religion or something, and wants to quit and be decent, why doesnt she go to another townChicago or someplace where nobody knows her? That motion of Alderman Mooneys thumb against the smooth pipe bowl stopped. He looked up slowly. Thats what I saidthe mayor too. But Blanche Devine said she wanted to try it here. She said this was home to her. Funnyaint it? Said she wouldnt be fooling anybody here. They know her. And if she moved away, she said, itd leak out some way sooner or later. It does, she said. Always! Seems she wants to live likewell, like other women. She put it like this: she says she hasnt got religion, or any of that. She says shes no different than she was when she was twenty. She [...].
