

90 Days: Set Things Right

This Book actually seeks answers from Companies and Bosses across the world who hire people whenever they need to launch a new project or product and one day suddenly decides to windup the project or wash their hands-off in the name of low business, economic downturn or any other reason. Such situation leaves these people in a very tight situation because its not only a question of One person, the whole family suffers. Some countries have the provision of giving un-employment allowances but it is not so in India. This book shows how this situations kill the hopes of people. How many people are absorbed in respectable Job after this. This book also is a precursor of Second Book SET THINGS RIGHT that will highlight the current issues in Indian Environment and How we as a citizen have entered in to a vicious cycle that only can be broken by us. Until we break this vicious cycle we will continue to remain in the same situation.
