

Science Fiction >>Metaphysical & Visionary --An Epic Adventure John meets Ginger. And they go from Client/Agent to Husband/Wife to Masters of their ship and destiny---and that's just the first few chapters! Transatlantic crossings, Evening soirees in Venice, Olympics in Lillehammer... The first book of this series, Weigh Anchor, picks up where the trilogy, The Donkey and the Wall, left off and propels the reader into the greater arena of possibility--the Universe. The Curious Voyages of the Anna Virginia Saga is an allegory of man's inner worlds. This series spans the development of awakening--from a simple chance encounter to the intentional exploration of the cosmos, from our little bit of real estate in the solar system to the center of the galaxy. A parable of a small nucleus of individuals who band together and set out on the journey of a lifetime.
