

Ralph Waldo Emerson (Classic Reprint)

Journals, 1909-14, brought out under the careful and tasteful editorship of Edward Waldo Emerson and Waldo Emerson Forbes. Of this copious and varied matter the present work has made extensive use. References to Emerson's works in this volume are based exclusively on the Centenary edition. Essays and smaller prose compositions generally are referred to by title followed by volume and page in the Centenary edition: thus, Fate, vi, 41. Poems are classed under the general title Poems followed by the appropriate volume and page. The following abbreviations have been used: Jour, for Journals; Cabot, for J. E. Cabot, well-known and admirable Memoir; E. in C., for Dr. Emerson's Emerson in Concord, and C. E. C. for Carlyle-Emerson Correspondence. Garnett's Emerson, Holmes's Ralph Waldo Emerson, Professor Woodberry's Emerson, Conway's Emerson at Home and A Broad, are referred to by the names of their authors, Garnett, Holmes, Woodberry, and Conway. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
