

The Complete Works of John L. Motley (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Complete Works of John L. Motley Establishment of the Condominium in the duchies Dissensions between the Neuburgers and Brandenburgers Occupation of Jillich by the Brandenburgers assisted by the States-General Indignation in Spain and at the court of the archdukes-Subsidy despatched to Brussels Spinola descends upon Aix-la-Chapelle and takes possession of Orsoy and other places Surrender of Wesel Conference at Xanten Treaty permanently dividing the territory between Brandenburg and Neuburg Prohibition from Spain Delays and disagreements. Thus the Condominium had been peaceably established. Three or four years passed away, in the course of which the evils of a joint and undivided sovereignty of two rival houses over the same territory could not fail to manifest themselves.
