

The Hidden Muse: An Anthology of Nineteenth Century Carroll County, Maryland, Newspaper Poets

The Hidden Muse is an anthology of 19th century poets from Carroll County, Maryland. It includes the work of Emma Alice Browne, a gifted contemporary of Emily Dickinson. It also includes the mysterious and equally gifted P.M. Deshong, a gothic writer who simply disappeared in 1848. The Hidden Muse presents a revealing glimpse into the hearts and minds of the men and women of small town America in the years before, during, and immediately after the Civil War. Includes annotations, biographical notes and checklist.
