

The Master

The Master is a collection of short stories selected and edited by Peter Birch, all on the theme on the dominant male. This is erotica, proud and uninhibited, with eight stories from seven different authors chosen for their knowledge and experience as well as for their ability to write. From the subtle touch of Lucy Felthouse to Penny Birchs unabashed delight in submission, all are designed to thrill, exploring both fantasy and reality to the very edge of what is permissible.
